

PIG™ Surgical Floor Skimmer

#HC200 - Tube Included • Latex Free • 10 each

Revolutionary design attacks puddle problems from all sides to help keep O.R. floors dry and safe.

- Cloverleaf shape directs liquids into the suction channel for maximum efficiency and performance
- Proprietary bottom wicking pad removes 60 liters per hour
- Top fluid collection channel captures liquid from the drapes and channels it to the wicking pad
- Low-profile design is so thin, the surgeon will never know it's there
- Easy-slide floor pad can be repositioned or swept across the floor with your foot; capture liquids no matter where they go
- Silent suction design helps keep the operating room quiet
- Patent-pending design
- 12-foot suction tubing (included) allows access to all areas around the O.R. table

Always in stock. Ships within 24 hours.
